Monigomery street. Jacob Stocke sold the lot for $18,000 cash.

The lot fronts eighty feet on Broadway by a depth of 120 feet on Montgomery, extending back to the Wabash tracks, and has excellent shipping facilities. The lot is covered with two-story buildings, which yield a very fair income on the investment. The purchaser, however, a large Eastern corporation, buys for the purpose of erecting warehouse and office on the lot for its own occupancy. The purchasers are not ready at this time to announce definite plans, but it is a very large New York corporation, with an immense capital and feels the necessity of opening an extensive branch, owing to the general increase in business in St. Louis and the territory tributary thereto.

An indication of the demand for and prices of West End property was afforded by a sale made by Fisher & Company, involving the southwest corner of Newstead avenue and West Belle place. The lot was transferred by W. R. Hogan to A. J. Nesbit for $20,500. The income from the property is $272 a month, or about 10 per cent interest. The property consists of stores and flats.

Similar purchases are resulting from the Terminal Railroad Association's purchases along the Lovee and investors moving westward. Within the last week the Mississippt Valley Trust Company's sales amounted to $109.850.

Mr. Moser already owned the southeast corner of Twelfth and Chestnut streets, and his purchase of the northeast corner of Twelfth and Market streets from Charles H. Turner, lot 169x160 feet, for 1840,000, gives him the entire block on Twelfth street, extending back 160 feet to an alley. The frontage is a fraction over 200 feet.

Mr. Moser has been successful with his present hotel and other enterprises, and the announcement of his plans is awaited with considerable interest.

Another event of importance to the hotel situation was the announcement that the contract for constructing the Buckingham at King's highway and West Pine boulevard, will be let to Fuller & Co. of New York, the building to cost $1,200,000.

The ground fee for the Buckingham was purchased yesterday by the Saxonia Realty Company from the Triumvirat Realty Company for $500,000. The lot is 215x250 feet. It is said that the property across the street on Pine could not be purchased at this figure.

mandant and acting Governor of the post of St. Louis, was born in Canada in 1705.

Little more is known of his early life than that he had been, for many years prior to his coming to St. Louis, in the military service of France, on duty in the Canadas and the Illinois country.

At the time the treaty of Paris went into effect, the Illinois settlements were under his government, he being at the time in command at Fort Chartres, and having the rank of Capitan.

In 1765, in obedience to the order of his superiors, and in the name of the King of France, he delivered to Capitan Sterling, the accredited commissioner of his British Majesty, formal possession of the Illinois country and with his little company of forty soldiers, came to St. Louis.

St. Louis was then an infant settlement, with no cnarier nor recognized government, and had begun to feel the need of governmental authority and control.

St. Ange's character and ability caused him to be endowed by the people with the authority that legitimately belonged to a Governor under the French colonial system in America.

He appears to have accepted these powers which the people sought to confer upon him only to the extent of maintaining public order, making grants of land and directing military affairs at the post of St. Louis. His rule was democratic.

The temporary government which he established went into effect January 2, 1756, and was maintained until May 20, 1770, at which date Don Pedro Piernar succeeded him by appointment of the Spanish Government.

him by appointment of the Spanish Government.

While St. Ange governed without authority of the Spanish Crown, he appears to have acted in harmony with the Spanish officials of the Province of Louisiana, so far as they chose to exercise any authority during his administration. He retired from office with the good will of his immediate successor, who conferred upon him the rank of Captain of Infantry in the Spanish service.

BUSY MEN WRITE BUSINESS LETTERS

Dr. W. A. Lewin, Lewin Bldg., St. Louis, My Dear Doctor-I was treated by you for a very aggravated case of rupture more than twelve years ago. Any one who has not been afflicted with such disease cannot possibly imagine the terrible suffering one has to endure. Several physicians advised an operation as the only cure, which I positively refused, owing to the danger and bad results therefrom. As fortune would have it. I happened to meet a friend who had been cured by you, who praised you very highly and advised me to consult you, which I did in September, 1890, and two months later you discharged me, perfectly cured. Your treatment was painless and did not detain me from my business, and I must say that your cure of my case seems now most wonderful to me. You did not require any money in advance; in fact, you refused to accept the same, preferring to wait until I was cured. Ever since you discharged me I have been actively engaged in my livery business, and I assure you I had almost forgotten that I ever was ruptured until I happened to meet you last week. You have my permission to publish this letter if you see fit, and I sincerely hope it will be the means of bringing some poor sufferer to you for treatment.
